Pamplin United Methodist Revival

The Pamplin United Methodist Church will hold Rev. revival beginning Nov. 14 – 19, 1971.

Special music for Sunday night will be furnished by the Rock's Quartet, Rock's Baptist Church in the Pamplin Community. It is a real treat to have these men to sing for us. They are well known and have been in many churches surrounding the area as well as having traveled extensively in the state of Virginia. Their program of sacred music is well known to us all.

There will be a covered dish supper held in the fellowship hall of the church at 6 p.m. Sunday evening. Preaching service will follow the singing service on Sunday night. Monday through Friday of the week there will be a prayer meeting held at 7 p.m. and lasting until 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to this meeting. The preaching service will begin each night at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Jack South, pastor of Locust Grove United Methodist Church, Salem, Va., will be the guest evangelist for the week, with services being led by Rev. John Hoke, host pastor.

Rev. South is not new to our services. During September of this year, he was the evangelist at our successful revival held at Evergreen United Methodist Church on the Pamplin Charge. He proved himself to be extremely gifted in the work of the Lord and gave challenging messages each night to the congregation. He truly is a dynamic witness for the Lord!

The public is invited to take part in these services each night, and we feel that God will bless you in your participation.
